Ranogga and Simbo Communities thank police for their presence and awareness talk

Communities of Ranogga and Simbo were happy with the police for their continuous visitation and conducted awareness talks to their communities during the festive season.

On the 27 December 2018, Gizo Police officers had been deployed to communities in Ranogga and Simbo as part of community visitation and conducted awareness talk during the festive season.

Communities visited on Ranogga Island are Lale, Konqu, Paqe, Babagea and Koriovuku. Each community was engaged in their respective Christmas programmes except for Babagea village which hosted a beach soccer competition which attracts a big number of people. In each community police officers conducted awareness talk based on the message crime-free festive season.

Provincial Police Commander (PPC) Western Province, Chief Superintendent Lenialu says, "Community chiefs and elders of each community were really happy to see police presence in their communities and they also thanked the officers for the awareness conducted."

PPC Lenialu says, "At Lengana Village in Simbo Island, officers also conducted awareness talk while on visitation. A programme hosted by a group called Simbo Women in Business under the theme 'cultural arts and music', this programme attracts a lot of people around the communities in Simbo Island. The main guest of Honour is the Western Provincial Premier Mr David Gina and the Director of Peace and Reconciliation Mr Reuben Lilo."

The Crime Prevention Chairman (CPC) for Lengana Village Mr. Homelton Tonga wants to thank the police officers for their presence during the event while the guest of honour during the programme, a high dignitary person in the Western Provincial Government and at the Ministerial level also thanked the police for the awareness conducted for the education of the most vulnerable on crime.

"I would like to thank my officers for the hard work and commitment in reaching out to the communities to conduct awareness talk since the people we serve is the back bone of policing in our country," says PPC Lenialu
