Guadalcanal Police acknowledges communities for peaceful celebration

Police in Guadalcanal Province commended the people of Guadalcanal for good behaviour during the Christmas and New Year's celebration.

Provincial Police Commander (PPC) Guadalcanal, Chief Superintendent Evelyn Thugea says, I wish to thank the good people of Guadalcanal for the good behaviour demonstrated and the support provided in creating a safe environment for communities to celebrate and enjoy the festive session.

PPC Thugea says, "The New Year celebrations went well in all communities and no major incidents reported across Guadalcanal policing jurisdiction. I must congratulate you all good people for taking responsibility in making this year's festive season a peaceful one."

Ms Thugea adds, "I want to share a message with you my good people of Guadalcanal to remember that the general security of our Province is our business, security is our shared responsibility."

"Guadalcanal Police are looking forward to work closely with the Provincial Government, Church leaders, Village chiefs, Youth leaders, Women group leaders and all stakeholders to build strong relationship and partnership to make our communities a safe, secure and better place to live on," says PPC Thugea.
