RSIPF witness launching of by-law in Malaita Province

Provincial Police Commander (PPC) Malaita Province Chief Superintendent Stanley Riolo has witnessed the launching of by-law for Ata'a communities in the North East Malaita on 22 May 2021.

Speaking at the launching ceremony PPC Riolo says, "I on behalf of the RSIPF and the officers, happy to witness the launching of your community by-law."

PPC Riolo says, "It is a good initiative that Ata'a community have decided to establish a by-law for the good and betterment of your own people and your generations to come. This is one of the activities that RSIPF have worked hard for it in the Crime Prevention Strategy."

Chief Superintendent Riolo says, "The only way we could go through in addressing social issues in our communities is working together and this is what I have witness during this launching today. I am happy that chiefs, elders and Church leaders involved in the Crime Prevention Committee (CPC) have work together to build a good community through this by-law."

Riolo adds, "To lead a community is not an easy task. It can be tough at times but need respect to one another. Working together by communities and the police will make our community a safer place for our children. And they will learn from us and maintain from where we left them so we can live in a crime free society."
