Missing female adult at sea in Temotu Province safely return home

The Royal Solomon Island Police Force (RSIPF) at Lata in Temotu Province have confirmed that a missing female adult at sea between Nukapu and Pileni safely returned home yesterday 5 January 2022.

Supervising Assistant Commissioner (AC) Provincial Mr Stanley Riolo says, “During the police search operation the adult female hid at Makalumu Island. An island between Pileni and Nukapu.”

AC Riolo says, “Information police obtained is that the husband and wife had an argument before her husband left for Pileni and later her wife left behind her husband on 30 December 2021.”

Mr Riolo says, “The husband has arrived safely at Pileni but her wife did not arrive as expected. She left Nukapu in the afternoon on 30 December 2021.”

On 1 January 2022, Police did a search around waters of the Reef Islands until yesterday she returned home safely. The woman is currently at Nuoba clinic at Reef Island for medical attention.”
