

31 January 2022

RSIPF reminds public to report any criminal issue occur in the community during covid-19 transmission situation

The Royal Solomon Islands Police Force (RSIPF) reminds the public who reside within the Emergency Zone from Poha to Aligetor Bridge to report any form of criminal issue occur in the community during COVID-19 transmission situation.

Police Commissioner Mostyn Mangau says, "If you are experiencing criminal Issues such as Theft, Assault, Break-in and domestic violence in your community, please call police or emergency patrols or go to your nearest police station and ask for help."

Commissioner Mangau says, "Safety and security of one-another and the community are everyone's responsibility, especially during this challenging time when we need to work together as a community to support each other."

Mr Mangau says, "It is important if you hear or know of anyone is a victim of any criminal issue to call for help."

Please call the police on phone 23666 or free toll 999 if you need police assistance. Let us work together with the government through the Ministry of Health to fight against Covid-19," says Commissioner Mangau.

//End//

Media inquiries

RSIPF Media Unit:
24016 or 23800 Ext 239

Email:
rsipf.media@rsipf.gov.sb

The Royal Solomon Islands Police Force (RSIPF) was established in 1954. Its mission is 'To provide a safe and peaceful Solomon Islands by strengthening relationships with the community'. The RSIPF strive to provide efficient and effective policing services for the Solomon Islands and expect RSIPF officers to adhere to the RSIPF values.

For ongoing news and information, please go to www.rsipf.gov.sb

Follow us on Facebook Page: www.facebook.com/rsipf