Police will mount an operation for the upcoming parliament sitting next week

The Royal Solomon Islands Police Force (RSIPF) will mount an operation for the next parliament sitting next week.

Police Officers will conduct proactive patrols and do some road checks in some parts of the Honiara City.

A good number of police officers will be involved in this parliament sitting. This includes Police officers from Honiara, Guadalcanal and Officers at Rove PHQ.

On this note, I appeal to all good citizens and the public of Solomon Islands to observe the upcoming parliament sitting with respect. The RSIPF aims to provide a safe and secure sitting of parliament.

Let our parliamentarian leaders do their mandated obligation and kindly ask the business houses, schools and the good citizens of this country to do business as usual.
