PPC's and Directors conference successfully concluded in Honiara

Provincial Police Commanders (PPCs) and Departmental Directors of the Royal Solomon Island Police Force (RSIPF) have successfully concluded on 5th May 2023 in Honiara.

During the official closing ceremony, RSIPF Commissioner Mr. Mostyn Mangau sincerely thanked and acknowledged the PPCs and Directors for their great efforts, leadership and professionalism to complete the desired conference requirements as witnessed at the conclusion of a long week conference.

Commissioner Mangau says, "During the conference you have discussed and reviewed the Annual Business Plan (ABP) 2023, present your work action plans challenges and outcomes and provide strategic solutions or mitigations to improve your work areas for the advancement of RSIPF for next year and beyond.

Mr. Mangau says, "Also, you have shown great support in your plan to support the upcoming Pacific Games 2023 and the National General Election 2024."

He says, "I trust you will go back to your various stations and departments and implement your work Plans strategies and priorities in supporting the ABP 2023/2024 and Strategic Directions 2021-2025 for the service of our people and the government."

"It is therefore, all of you who are here as leaders of RSIPF are to ensure that the plan you develop will reflect and support the needs of our people and communities," says Commissioner Mangau.
