Taro police conducts awareness talk at Pagobiru school and Polo village

Taro police have conducted awareness talks at Pagobiru School and Polo Village in Choiseul Province recently.

Provincial Police Commander (PPC) Choiseul Province Superintendent Berry Pogesopa said the community policing team conducted awareness talks at Pagobiru School and later gifted them with sporting items.

PPC Pogesopa said, “Illegal alcohol and drugs, family violence, issues affecting youths, resources and environment, and emerging issues are some of the topics delivered during the awareness talk.”

Superintendent Pogesopa said, “Representatives from both the Pagobiru school and Polo village have expressed their gratitude towards officers for bringing the much-needed interaction and police presence to the school and community.”

The community policing team has worked closely with Polo community leaders and has seized six-cylinder bottles used for brewing homebrew (kwaso).
